TODAY AT MUHLENBERG

ALL SAINTS SUNDAY

Today we give thanks for the saints who have gone before us, for the saints of God who are living, and for saints still to come. We are especially thankful for the witness and works of those who have died in the faith as they modeled what it means to be both saint and sinner. Today we remember by name those who died in the past year. We look forward to sharing with them the life that is eternal.

*Rest eternal grant them, O Lord, and let

SAAM SERVICE

Join us at 1:30 pm for SAAM (Sunday Afternoons at Muhlenberg), an outdoor worship service that takes place twice a month. As cooler weather sets in, we're planning to gather for this service in the yard behind the Ott Street house with a campfire. Join us today as we remember the saints, and welcome a new brother in Christ through Holy Baptism (see details on page 2).

A NOTE FROM PASTOR LAUREN

I am incredibly grateful for the kind words, prayers, care, and support that the people of Muhlenberg have provided me over the past five months. Your cards and letters brought me much joy, and the care team's gift of meals helped us more than I can put into words. Thank you for being Christ's presence to me and my family in a difficult time.

Over the course of several months, I was diagnosed with pneumonia, Epstein-Barr virus reactivation, post-viral inflammatory syndrome, and possible autonomic dysfunction. Altogether, what that has meant for me is extreme fatigue, brain fog, muscle pain, dizziness and passing out.

While many of my symptoms have eased, my fatigue is still significant. My doctor and I think I'm ready for part-time work, but she has strictly instructed me not to work more than 20 hours a week! I'm going to do my best to hold to that, because I want to be sure my body can fully recover and I can come back to full-time work as soon as possible.

So, please be patient with me, as I likely won't be able to keep up with as many things as I'd like. But I am confident that our temporary team of three pastors will be able to serve the congregation well together, and I am thrilled to be among you in worship and service again.

As Paul wrote to the Thessalonians, so I write to you: I give thanks to God for all of you...constantly remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ (1 Thess 1:2-3). I am so grateful for this community and looking forward to our partnership as together we continue to equip all people to live out Christ's love.

Pastor Lauren

CREATION CARE TIP

Creation Care offers a simple tip that will help you protect God's earth. Contact Ramona Sanders for more information: 433-1165 or rsanders97@verizon.net.

More than 35 million tons of plastics were generated in the United States in 2017, which was more than 13% of the waste stream. Only 8.4% of plastics were recycled in 2017. Some types of plastics are recycled much more than others. Most community recycling programs accept some, but not all, types of plastics. Whenever possible, avoid single-use plastics and seek out alternatives. Our local recycling center located on Beery Road accepts only Poly(ethyleneterephthalate) 1 Pete, and high density (polyethylene) 2 Hope. These symbols are usually printed on the bottom of plastic bottles and containers.

ABUNDANCE TASK FORCE

WHY I GIVE ~ Conversations about giving and abundance

As part of our Abundance Task Force's efforts to share the story of why members give to the ministries of Muhlenberg, Congregation Council President Karen Thomsen sat down with an emotional and insightful conversation with Muhlenberg member and volunteer, Kathy Thompson, to talk about the church and why she gives her time, talents, and treasure to Muhlenberg. See a recap of that conversation below!

Karen: Thanks for talking with me today, Kathy! So, let me ask, what first brought you to Muhlenberg?

Kathy: What drew me to Muhlenberg in 2005 was the outreach - what Muhlenberg was doing in the community, as well as in the church. That was so important to me, because I believe God wants us to be a church together and a community together. It's like if you have an individual coal from a fire - if it's away from the fire and the other coals, it will fizzle out and die. But, if it's within the fire and with the other coals, it burns - creating warmth and light and hopefulness. That's what we're doing as a church - living out our baptismal promises together. So, feeding that fire is giving to the church. If you're going to belong to a community, which I think is important, you have to support it. And that means giving our time, talent, and finances. We have to support our staff, maintain the church building, and so on - but the ministries (like Second Home, etc.) are the most important thing. I know I have benefitted from this church community - when I'm sick or hurt, you really feel that support, and so does the community.

Karen: I have to tell this story about community. I hope you realize how important you were at that point in my life when I was grieving the death of someone close to me. I came to your Sunday School class, and I was down and out that day. You gave me that Bible, and you and that class were the community I needed then. I felt like God's spirit was there and knew what I needed - and you were there for me.

Kathy: Thank you for sharing that, that's awesome! That spirit being there - that's how it feels when we all worship here together, I think.

Karen: As far as giving is concerned - I like being able to give and not have to pick what I'm giving to - whether it's the electric bill, Faith Formation, etc. God will figure out how to work with what I give.

Kathy: Yes! I give online and, as my income has decreased, my giving hasn't decreased. I still have enough, and I love the feeling of contributing. I mean, look at what we've been able to do over the past year! Like our online services, for example - they're so professional. And that's a result of gifts to the church, and the church deciding how to best use those finances.
